

VACCINE DEVELOPMENT

Latest Covid vaccine news

The vaccine produced by Pfizer/BioNtech has now been given approval by the UK regulator. This means that the vaccinations for front line health and social care staff can begin this week and plans will be made to enable residents and carers in Care homes to be vaccinated as early as possible. This will be followed by people over the age of 80 years of age and then those over 75 years of age.